

CAMEL TRAIN CONFUSION

HIDDEN GEM Camels are called 'ships of the desert' because the rocking motion you feel when riding them can make you seasick.

END HERE!

MARGO: Are those camels I can see? Where are you?
AMELIA: In the Sahara. We're trying to track down the camel Lady V went trekking on.
MARGO: Don't upset it - I've heard they spit! When you find it, head to Gairo to meet Dr Miriam Shortstaff at the Egyptian Museum.

START HERE!

Help Amelia through the confusion of camels to find what fell out of Lady Vivian's bag.
