

*My sticky little fingerprints,
I've left on every wall.
And on the drawers and table tops,
I've really marked them all.
But here is one that I have done,
the best I've ever made,
A handprint as a gift for you,
One that will never fade.*

*The pitter patter of little feet,
leave behind something dear and sweet.*

A precious gift for me to treasure, tiny prints to keep forever.

My sticky little fingerprints,
I've left on every wall.
And on the drawers and table tops,
I've really marked them all.
But here is one that I have done,
the best I've ever made,
A handprint as a gift for you,
One that will never fade.
